domain names

Starting from € 12.04 per Year

Choose a business or unusual domain name and link your mailbox and/or website to that unique address. It's the ideal way to make a name for yourself - and we know what we're talking about because it's our business.

Want a little more?

1/ Fast registration and transfer

Simply request your domain name from edpnet and we'll make sure it gets registered as quickly as possible. Already got one or more domain names? We'll move them in a flash to one of our own servers for the once-only fee of € 18.15. The precise procedure for your transfer depends on your domain name's extension.

2/ Your domain name remains your property

...and is always registered in your name.

3/ Domain names start at € 12.04 per year

Which is a pretty good price for a domain name with a .be extension. The most popular extensions are listed below. But if you have something different in mind, check our online ordering tool for the odd men out: .cn, .tv, .us, ...

4/ Choose for a range of extensions

The most popular extensions are listed below. But if you have something different in mind, check our online ordering tool for the odd men out.
